Litigation Involving Big Oil Leases

Pawnee, Okia, May 19.-The Mo-Chanics Savings bank of Rhode Island, alleging fraud and assorting that Its Interests were not protected, filed a motion in the Pawnee county districk court here today, asking Judge Bayard T. Hainer to set galile his order of May 8, in dischargion Mortimer F. Stilwell of Gray Horse, Okla., as receiver of the Indian Territory Oil company, and in dismissing the suit begun by the Mechanical Savings bank last February. A similar method with be filed at Vinita before Judge Gill, who united with Judgu Hainer in naming Mr. Stilwell as the Manage and Board to the last statement of the still state of the state of the still state of the state of receiver of the properties, Representallyes of the bank will come from Rhode Island to make a vigorous prosscution of the mit.

The litigation involves the oil and gas lease privileges in the entire gun specifically to recover $80,000 alleged to be owing to the plaintiff by the oil company. Several years ago Osage reservation, dating from 1896. with the option of renewing the lease on its expiration for another ten years. Major Freeman, the United States Indian agent at Pawhusta, and John Plorer of Gray Horse, are alleged to have helped in securing the lease. Mr. Foster sold his lease to the Phoenix Oil company, which sublet tracts of land to the Osage Oil company for the purpose of developing the field. Opermilens were begun near Bartlesville. Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe some inscaled anyelope. I. T. Mr. Poster's bank loaned the companies about $80,000, taking stock as collateral. The companies were unsuccessful, E. B. Foster died and was succeeded as cashier by his brother, K. J. B. Foster, who demanded payment from the bank and the companies united in interesting New York capitalists As a result the Indian territory Illuminating Oil company of New Jorse, with a capital stock of 3 million dollars, was organled. This company acquired all the rights and properties of the two other companies, but declined to pay the $80,000 owing to the bank, alleging that all outstanding stock had not been surrendered.

The bank brought suit last February and placed all the properties in that in the receivers' settlement the into Guthrie by next Saturday. Interests of Poster and others were of the settlement. The Indian ter the Vine street cut. ritory Illuminating Oil company is re-Standard Oll company.
